

OFFICERS PLEASED WITH TEST RIDES; RODE AGAIN TODAY

Seventy-two Officers in Saddles for Fifteen

"Why, these test rides are fun to any officer who is in proper physical condition," said Maj. Gen. Frederick D. Grant, commander of the Department of the East, before mounting his horse at Fort Myer this morning to take his place at the head of seventy-two officers who began a fifteen-mile endurance ride.

The ride, which is the third led by General Grant, began promptly at 11 o'clock, and came to a happy end for the army officers at 1:30, when the breathless riders dashed up to the hospital at Fort Myer for a physical examination.

The route was northeast from the fort to Rosslyn, thence via the county road to Alexandria and return. For the first five miles the officers were allowed to warm up in a slow walk, then the order was given for a five-mile trot, which was in turn followed with a five-mile gallop.

Last Met at West Point. Various other things followed these latter orders, principal among them being a quantity of discordant exclamations, vain puffing and blowing, and the exchange of a number of views between officers enduring the test side by side.

As early as 9 o'clock, the officers began to assemble at Fort Myer. Many went on the trolley car in civilian dress and with their swords carefully wrapped in paper. To the uninitiated, it was apparent that these rather tactless individuals were engaged on some none too pleasant mission, but completely was their identity concealed that few knew the meaning of the suitcase each carried.

About 10 o'clock General Grant appeared in service uniform, being escorted from the Signal Corps Post entrance by troops E, F, and G of the Thirtieth Cavalry. An hour was spent at headquarters in an informal reception among the officers, many of them meeting brother officers whom they had not seen in a score of years.

Discordant Exclamations. "Well, well, I haven't seen you since you were a plebe at West Point," said one portly colonel to another. They shook hands for about three minutes.

"Gee, but you were a fine plebe. I'll never forget October night," he continued. His brother officer seemed to remember the occasion also and seemed grateful to know that at last they both were on an equal footing and would receive today's "hazing" together.

General Grant Pleased. General Grant was the center of an interesting group all times and seemed to be one officer who was looking forward to the ride. Talking to Times representatives, he said: "This will be the third test ride led by me and I really enjoy it."

At 10:30 o'clock General Grant directed that the officers select their horses, hinting that the fat officers should take the large horses and the small men mount the medium-sized animals. A great rush was made for the greenward where the steeds were waiting and there ensued a scene of much swapping, experimenting, and cajoling of privates and attendants to "select me a gentle one, will you?" Some of the officers, particularly robust officers, sought lither and thicker for saddles and horses seeming to possess more than half that sum, and made a grab in the dark, so to speak, and mounted with many misgivings.

Conspicuous among the riders was Col. Daniel Lockwood, of the Corps of Engineers, who holds the record for love of terra firma. Colonel Lockwood today mounted a horse for the first time in thirty-six years, his last horsemanly stunt being pulled off in Arizona in 1871. He did not even practice for today's ride, and mounted as though he intended to show up in excellent shape at the end.

MRS. LENNON MUCH BETTER; SWALLOWED STRYCHNINE

Doctors at the Emergency Hospital said today that the condition of Mrs. Annie Lennon, who accidentally swallowed a quantity of strychnine yesterday, is not serious, and that she will be able to leave the institution this afternoon.

Mrs. Lennon, whose home is in Pittsburg, came to Washington some time ago to care for her husband, who had been ill.

The couple had been living at 1114 Fifteenth street northwest.

ARMY AND NAVY SEEK LARGER APPROPRIATIONS

If the estimates which have been prepared are accepted by Congress, the appropriations for the army, navy, Marine Corps, and revenue cutter service will be the largest ever granted by Congress. In the army the increase will be $5,000,000, the navy will be $5,000,000, the Marine Corps $1,000,000, and the revenue cutter service $1,000,000. A bill for increased pay will be introduced by Representative A. B. Capron, of Rhode Island, which, it is understood, has the approval of President Roosevelt.

SUNDAY GAME OF CRAP COSTS TWO YOUTHS $15

That a game of crap is not the best sort of pleasure to indulge in on a Sunday was more than demonstrated to the minds of Walter Clay and Elliott Gamers, two colored youths, by a fine of $15, which was imposed upon them today by Judge Kimball.

The two colored boys were arrested in the Smithsonian grounds and charged with disorderly conduct and profanity. A third member of the crap game "test wise to the coppers" sooner than the other two, and escaped.

Albert A. Wilson Dead After a Long Illness

Had Been Public Officer in District for Many

Albert A. Wilson, a member of the board of Assistant District Assessors, died at 12:35 o'clock this afternoon at his residence, 300 G street northwest, the cause of his death being diabetes.

At his bedside when he died were his wife, his brother, W. J. Wilson, and his sister, Mrs. M. B. Breneman. His daughter is in Vancouver.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral. Although Mr. Wilson had been very ill for a long time, it was only in the last two weeks that it was generally known that he was at death's door. For the past ten days he has been critically ill, his condition varying but little. Last Saturday night it was thought that he could not live many hours, but, by his strong constitution, he survived until this afternoon.

Albert A. Wilson had been a lifelong resident of this city. He was born here in 1849 and received his early education at a then fashionable school in Alexandria, finishing his course at a Baltimore business college.

His talents seemed to direct him toward the field of commerce. In 1870 he was elected president of the Fireman's Insurance Company, located at Seventh street and Louisiana avenue, after having served faithfully in that corporation for many years. He was appointed a United States marshal during Mr. Cleveland's two terms as President, resigning when President McKinley came into power.

He was appointed as an assessor in January of this year, receiving his commission from the Commissioners. Mr.

ALBERT A. WILSON,
Member of Board of Assistant District
Assessors.

Wilson was universally recognized as a man of splendid financial ability. In 1881, while still a very young man, Mr. Wilson met and soon afterwards married his present wife. He had one daughter, who is married to Col. George B. Davis, now stationed at Vancouver, British Columbia. Three grandchildren also survive him.

BIG LINER UMBRIA LOSES MAINMAST IN TERRIFIC GALE

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The ancient Umbria, of the Cunard line, yesterday rounded out one of the stormiest and roughest voyages across the ocean of her long career.

Her top mainmast was carried away as the result of a terrific gale that seemed to follow the ship across the ocean. With it went part of the wireless apparatus, and the ship had to be slowed down while temporary repairs were made.

In view of the severity of the storm, the ship's officers seemed to regard the wireless communication with the land or other vessels as especially to be desired, and they took every chance in having the repairs made. As it was, the telegraphic apparatus was out of work for about twenty-four hours when the gale was at its height.

The accident to the mast occurred on Wednesday, when the passengers were in the dining saloon, and the crash of falling timber could be heard all over the ship.

The next day the ship slowed down until repairs could be made to the wireless apparatus, which was extremely ticklish work, considering the way the ship was pitching and tossing at the time.

PHILIP BOILEAU WEDS INSPIRATION OF HIS PICTURES

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The announcement of a marriage which will be of intense interest to artists and art lovers all over this country, as well as in European ports, to which his fame has spread, was made yesterday by Philip Boileau, well-known portrait painter of an American girl, who has made the Gibson girl look to her laurels.

What lends special interest to the announcement is the fact that the artist became enamored of the type created by himself, for his bride was Miss Emily Gilbert, the model for most of his recent studies, and the inspiration for numerous others. Mrs. Boileau therefore is, according to the standard set down by this French-American painter, the "typical American girl."

Mr. Boileau and Miss Gilbert were married by the Rev. Dr. Houghton at the Little Church Around the Corner on October 9, but so quietly that the news did not become known to the hosts of admirers of the "Boileau Girl." Miss Gilbert is twenty-two years of age and comes from Quakertown, Pa.

She met the artist six months ago, and it was a case of love at first sight with both. She was studying at a school of dramatic art in Carnegie Hall. Mrs. Boileau said last night that she had abandoned all thoughts of the stage, and would be content to be known to the public hereafter only as the American girl whom her clever husband had made famous.

EMBASSY DEMANDS REASON FOR ARREST OF AMERICAN PARTY

American Millionaire Wal-lings May Soon Be Released by Russians.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 21.—The United States embassy called on the Russian authorities today for an explanation of yesterday's arrest of William English Wallings, the American millionaire and noted socialist; his wife, formerly Anna Strunsky, the famous Russian novelist, and the latter's sister, Rose Strunsky.

Though Legation Secretary Schuyler did all in his power to aid the prisoners yesterday, the absence of high officials from the city made it impossible to learn more than that the arrests were made by order of Colonel Jernovitch, chief of the secret police, and that they are accused of affiliations with the Finnish progressives.

Wanted Information.

It is believed the police do not intend to hold the trio, but took them into custody to extort information from them concerning their associates. Their release is looked for today, coupled with orders for their immediate departure from Russian territory.

The arrests were preceded by those of four Finns—three men and a woman, the latter the wife of Prof. Malmström, of Helsingfors University—with whom the Wallings and Miss Strunsky had just dined.

Miss Strunsky had accompanied the Finns to the railroad station, and was holding them good-by, when they were taken into custody and her own arrest followed a few moments later.

Wallings Arrested.

Wallings heard his sister-in-law was a prisoner and appealed to Secretary Schuyler and was waiting at the Hotel de France for news from the embassy, when a police captain and eight policemen arrived, arrested Wallings and his wife, ransacked the former's luggage, confiscated a quantity of pamphlets of which Wallings was the author, and took Wallings to the detention house and his wife to the women's prison. Miss Strunsky is in the new jail built for the third section of the secret police.

Kellogg Eurland, the American lecturer, was arrested in connection with the same matter, but released after a short detention, and is exerting himself in the Wallings' behalf. The police are also looking for James M. James, an American, correspondent for socialist newspapers.

Wallings is a son of Dr. Willoughby Wallings, of Chicago, and inherited a fortune from his maternal grandfather, William H. English, who ran for Vice President of the United States in 1883. His home is in Indianapolis. He was married last year to Anna Strunsky, the daughter of a Jewish merchant, who lost his wealth.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS TO SEND VOTERS HOME

The pending contest for governor of the State of Kentucky was discussed at a meeting of the Kentucky Republican Club last night, and steps were taken to send a large delegation of voters home for election.

It was said at the meeting that the Republicans in Kentucky are waging a determined campaign in an endeavor to wrest the State from the Democrats, and that Wilson, the Republican nominee for governor, is making an aggressive fight against Hager, the Democratic nominee.

whose marriage to Dr. Milton H. Prosser will take place tomorrow evening, was tendered a linen shower during the past week by the Father Lights, a missionary society of the Metropolitan Baptist Church. Miss Shipley has been secretary of the society for the past two years.

Klein—Werck.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Rosa Werck, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Werck, to Victor Klein, formerly of New York, which took place in St. Theresa's Church last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. M. P. Egan.

The church was decorated with palms and foliage plants, white cosmos, and white satin ribbon.

The organist of the church, Miss Jennie Bartley, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the church, during the ceremony "Oh, Promise Me," and as the party left the church, "Believe Me."

The bride wore a handsome bridal gown of white tulle with a high collar, elaborately trimmed with rose point lace and satin ribbon. The skirt was made with full court train. The bridal veil was arranged with a crown of lilacs of the valley caught with a diamond tiara, a gift of the bride's sister. The bride's bouquet was a shower of bride roses.

Miss Emma Werck, sister of the bride, wore a white silk tulle dress with lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Annie Werck, sister of the bride, wore a pink silk dress, trimmed with white lace and also carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Two little flower girls were Helen Owens and Bertha Gantz, tastefully dressed in white lace and carried baskets of roses and carnations.

Joseph Klein, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The ushers were Joseph A. Drummond, Edward B. Wayson, Harry Thompson, and Henry Twilling. After the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the residence of the bride and bridegroom received congratulations of their many friends in the pink room. Afterward the banquet hall was thrown open and a buffet supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Klein left Washington during the evening for a short trip. Mr. Klein's traveling gown was of dark blue broadcloth and blue hat. On their return they will live at 233 M street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter T. Bride, of 131 B street southeast, announce that the marriage of their daughter, Louise Dorothy, to Malcolm K. Varnell, will be celebrated at St. Peter's Church, Thursday, November 21. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of William Jennings Bryan. On account of the continued ill health of Mrs. Bride, the reception at her residence will be confined to relatives and personal friends, including Mr. Bryan.

Mrs. Horace Lee Washington, wife of the American consul general at large in Europe, who is coming to Washington to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Williams, of Chicago, who have taken apartments at Stoneleigh Court, is expected to arrive in the city tomorrow on the Washington, of the Hamburg American line. She will come directly to Washington upon her arrival.

Miss Catherine Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, whose engagement to Francis Bennett Poe, of Washington, was recently announced, will not be married until spring. Miss Williams will be one of the bridesmaids at the marriage of Miss Catherine Ridgely and Phelps Brown on Thursday at noon.

Miss Anna Louisa Forbes Taylor and J. A. Brown, of Annapolis Junction, Md., will be married in the bride's home, Edgewood, Westland county, Va., Wednesday, November 6. Only the members of the two families will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acker and Miss Nellie Acker have returned to Washington. They have been spending the summer in Basie City, Va.

Mrs. Clifford Walton has returned to Washington from Bass Rock, Mass. Mr. Walton, who is now camping in the gold fields of Nevada, will return the first of next month.

Mrs. Francis Loring has joined her husband and daughter at their residence on K street. She has been spending the summer in New England.

Judge and Mrs. Payson and their niece, Miss Mabel Kent, have returned to their home, in Massachusetts avenue. They spent the summer at their cottage in Newport.

Mrs. Larson, of Helena, Mont., left last week for her home in the West. For the past ten days she has been the guest of Senator and Mrs. Carter of Montana.

Paymaster Carmody, U. S. N., and Mrs. Carmody have returned to the city and are staying at the Cairo for the month of October.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the new synagogue, corner Sixth and I streets, Miss Sara Rosenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of this city, was married to Joseph Levy, also of Washington. The interior of the Temple, which in its present state, is in spotless white, made a perfect background for the beautiful decorations of white roses, foliage, and palms, while the pulpit, where Dr. Schnaberg, of Baltimore, officiated, formed a canopy of white ribbon, wedding bells, and roses. The bride, an attractive brunette, wore a Valenciennes Irish crocheted lace gown over chiffon and tulle, made in severe princess style, with a tulle veil gracefully draped, enveloping the entire figure, and attached to the hair with orange blossoms. She carried a snowier bouquet of bride roses. Miss Sophie Levy, wearing a pale blue mesaline gown and carrying pink bridesmaid roses, was the maid of honor. Little Lillian Rosenthal and Mildred Schlossberg, the former in blue and the latter in pink and each carrying baskets of flowers, acted as flower girls, while little Leo Schlossberg was page.

Mr. Levy had for his best man Max S. Rosenthal. The ushers were Mack Rosenthal, Max Cohen, Harry Dodeck, Louis Marks, and Jacob S. Rosenberg. After the ceremony the bridal party and family went to National Rifles gallery, where the bridal dinner was served, and many toasts to the young couple were given. At about 8 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Levy held a reception to their many friends.

Later in the evening they left for a two weeks' tour to New York, Niagara Falls, and Atlantic City. Mrs. Levy's traveling costume, being brown cloth, with hat, boots, and gloves of the same color.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. S. Cashman, New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. Finkelshtein, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Cassel Cohen, New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. Harris, Baltimore; Miss Fannie Zimble, Miss Annie Harris, Miss Katie Harris, William Edgar Katzstein, Henry Cohen, and A. Cohen, all of Baltimore.

NEW PASTOR INSTALLED IN ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH

The Rev. F. W. Almsendinger, of Canal Winchester, a suburb of Columbus, Ohio, was installed as pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church last night. Dr. Doerman, pastor of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, and president of the Concordia district of the Evangelical Lutheran synod, conducted the installation service. The Rev. O. H. Pence delivered the charge, taking as his subject St. Paul's address to Timothy.

Dr. Almsendinger held an impromptu reception immediately following the ceremony. The new pastor succeeds the Rev. A. C. Schiff, who has accepted a call to the pastorate of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, of Columbus, Ohio.

His Cigar Doesn't Taste Right

And Yet It Is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Relish
After Dinner Last Night. Out of the Very Same Box, Too.

IT ISN'T THE CIGAR—IT'S THE STOMACH.

Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

Such men are usually high livers, hard workers mentally, living under high pressure and high draught, and it doesn't take a great deal to disorder the stomach or render the liver torpid. They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.

These tablets are not to be confounded with the patent medicine habit. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, but are composed of the very elements which nature provides the healthy stomach to do the work of digestion—pepsin, diastase, golden seal, etc. There is no secret in their preparation—they are absolutely pure and, therefore, all the world uses them.

No matter how disordered the stomach may be, if you take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, right then if given the chance, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food where the stomach can't, give the abused stomach and intestines a rest, and offer renewed strength to the worn-out glands and muscles.

Brain workers can rely on Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter how tense the strain. All druggists carry them in the fifty cent packages, or if you prefer, a free trial package can be had by sending your name and address today. Write: Stuart Company, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.
